

CURRICULUM VITAE

Amalia Diurni

Full Professor at the University of Rome “Tor Vergata”

amalia.diurni@uniroma2.it

Amalia Diurni is Full Professor of Private and Comparative Law at the University of Rome "Tor Vergata", Department of Management and Law, Business School, where she teaches Introduction to the Legal System, Comparative Private Law and Uniform Private Law.

She is visiting professor in many foreign universities: Université de Paris II Panthéon-Assas (France), Regensburg Universität (Germany), Université de Fribourg (Swiss), Institute of European and Comparative Law, University of Oxford (UK), Université Saint Esprit de Kaslik (Lebanon).

She is director of the International PhD Programme "Teoria dei contratti, dei servizi e dei mercati" (University of Rome Tor Vergata)

She is Member of the Associazione italiana di diritto comparato (AIDC); Associazione Italiana Alexander von Humboldt (AiAvH); Società italiana per la ricerca nel diritto comparato (SIRD); Association Henri Capitant des amis de la culture juridique française; Société de législation comparée; Deutsch-Italienische Juristenvereinigung.

She is on the editorial board of the Rivista di diritto privato, Giurisprudenza italiana and Diritto e Salute - Rivista di sanità e responsabilità medica.

She graduated with honours in Private Law from the University of Rome “La Sapienza” with a thesis entitled ‘Lo stato di necessità’, supervisor Prof. C. M. Bianca.

She has got the Ph.D. in Private Law, International Private Law and Comparative Law at the University of Regensburg, Germany (1998: summa cum laude) with a thesis entitled 'Notstand und Nothilfe. Eine dogmatische Untersuchung auf der Grundlage des deutschen und italienischen Zivilrechts', published in the series Schriften zum deutschen und europäischen Zivil-, Handels- und Prozeßrecht, Giese King, Bielefeld, 1998. Her German Ph.D. was recognized by the Italian Ministry of the University (1999).

She is a lawyer registered in the special register at the Council of the Bar Association of Rome (1998)

In 1990 and from 1993 to 1999 she was Research Assistant in Private Law, International Private Law and Comparative Law at the Law School of the University of Regensburg (Germany).

She taught several courses and classes as Research Assistant included “Italienisch für Juristen I” and “Einführung in das italienische Zivilrecht” at the Law School of the University of Regensburg/Germany (1997-1999) and “Contract law in comparative perspective” at the Law School of the University of Urbino/Italy (1997-1999); then as Adjunct Professor she taught Introduction to Comparative Law at the Law School of the Urbino University/Italy (1999/2012); European Law and International Private Law at the Humanities Faculty of the Pisa University/Italy (2002-2005), Introduction to Comparative Law at the Law School of the Rome University LUISS (2005-2008), Comparative Law at the Law School of the Rome University LUISS (2007-2008/ 2010-2012), Comparative Law at the Institut de Droit Comparé of the University of Paris Panthéon-Assas (2010-2023), Comparative Law at the School of Law of the USEK/Lebanon (2016/2017).

She has been awarded fellowships by the DAAD (1996) and the Alexander von Humboldt Stiftung (2001 and 2003).

She has participated in several national research projects: FIRB 2006 “Gen-Etica. Profili bioetici e biogiuridici della genetica tra ricerca sperimentale, consulenza e prospettive terapeutiche”, p.i. Prof. Adriano Pessina (Catholic University of Milan); PRIN 2008 “Competizione tra università e governance del sistema universitario nazionale”, p.i. Prof. Giovanna Colombini (Pisa University).

She is responsible for the Rome Tor Vergata unit of the national research PRIN 2020 “Digital Vulnerability in the European Private Law”, p.i. Marta Infantino (Trieste University).

She is fluent in English, French and German. She has basic knowledge of Spanish, Portuguese and Dutch.

She is author of several books and scientific articles in Italian, German, French and English on comparative law, contract law, family law, financial and banking law, torts and medical law

February 2023